

Commercial and Professional Liability Attorney – Reno/Tahoe

The national law firm of Lewis Brisbois seeks attorneys with 5-8 years of experience to join its growing Reno Tahoe office. Our lawyers pride themselves on teamwork to ensure our clients receive a high level of service. Areas of practice include commercial liability, medical and legal malpractice and insurance bad faith/coverage. This position provides opportunity for professional growth with the prospect to maintain and develop business.

Ideal candidates will have experience in commercial litigation, as well as legal malpractice, insurance agent/broker, directors/officers liability and insurance bad faith defense. Candidates should be organized, proactive, and have strong attention to guidelines and detail. Responsibilities will include assisting in developing case strategy, as well as trial preparation and trial attendance, all discovery phases, depositions, court appearances and supervision of associate work. We are looking for motivated and success-driven individuals to join our dynamic and fast-paced team. Candidates with a book of business are welcome for consideration.

All candidates must possess an active Nevada Bar License, solid academic credentials, excellent writing and professional advocacy skills.

LBBS offers a competitive market-based compensation package based on experience, aggressive bonus program, as well as medical, dental, vision and life/disability insurance, paid time off, paid holidays, and 401k.

Contact

All candidates should submit their cover letter, resume, professional references, a writing sample (no more than 5-10 pages), to: nancy.lindberg@Lewisbrisbois.com
Applications remain confidential