JOB SUMMARY: Under general supervision of the District Attorney or his/her designee, performs a wide range of legal secretarial and administrative duties in the District Attorney's Office; provides word processing and data entry support; provides general information and assistance to county staff and the public.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS: This is a journey level position in the Legal Assistant series. This class is distinguished from the Legal Assistant I by the assignment of a wider range of duties within the District Attorney's office. Employees at this level receive only occasional instruction or assistance as new or unusual situations arise and are fully aware of the operating procedures and policies within the work unit. This class is considered generally knowledgeable of the policies and procedures of basic legal assistant duties; however, the incumbent may exercise limited technical and functional authority and may work under general direction and guidance of the District Attorney or his/her designee.

EXAMPLES OF ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS: The duties listed below are examples of the work typically performed by an employee in this position. Performance of these functions is the reason the job exists. An employee may not be assigned all duties listed and may be assigned duties which are not listed below.

- Performs a variety of confidential legal office support work which may require the exercise of independent judgement, application of technical skills and knowledge of detailed or specialized activities related to the District Attorney's Office.
- Drafts and processes a variety of legal documents such as agreements, contracts, warrants, memoranda, reports, transcripts, complaints, law enforcement reports, search and arrest warrants, affidavits, declarations, pleadings, briefs, motions, jury instructions, ordinances, resolutions, notices, contracts, deeds, agreements, and other documents from rough-draft, verbal instructions, stenographic notes, transcribing machine recordings, or brief notes using various software applications; composes routine letters and reports as assigned.

- Provides support and customer service internally and to the general public; handles inquiries via email, phone or in person; answers questions and provides information where judgment, knowledge and interpretation may be needed; troubleshoots issues, resolves informal complaints and refers issues to appropriate sources as necessary; runs errands.
- Prepares memos, forms, reports, spreadsheets, and other correspondence; enters data and information into computer systems and databases; maintains and researches records, compiles data, and disseminates information.
- Initiates specified correspondence independently for signature by appropriate staff; reviews finished materials for completeness, accuracy, formatting, compliance with policies and procedures, and appropriate English language; types drafts and a wide variety of draft and finished documents, including both general and legal-related correspondence and documents.
- Calendars and schedules court dates, meetings and appointments for attorneys; files or arranges for the filing of paperwork with the court.
- Creates, updates and maintains various record keeping systems including databases, logs, calendars, chronological records, forms, and reports to ensure accuracy and easy retrieval of information; performs follow-up on projects, transmits information, stays informed of pertinent activities, and schedules and arranges meetings.
- Researches and compiles information needed for meetings, reports, and information requests by citizens, agencies, and other entities.
- Receives, verifies, records, and deposits bills and/or fees; processes and maintains work orders, billings, invoices, and service requests; creates and runs routine and/or customized reports; assists with departmental budget activities and goals as directed; assists with ordering supplies or other administrative activities as required.
- As directed, organizes work, sets priorities, and meets critical deadlines.
- Assists the development of analytical studies; reviews reports, findings, alternatives, and recommendations; directs the maintenance of accurate records and files; prepares and directs the preparation of a variety of written correspondence, reports, procedures, and other written materials.
- Obtains and/or maintains required certifications and licenses; attends and participates in professional group sessions; engages in continuous education, training, and other professional development; stays abreast on new trends and innovations related to the field.
- Consistently demonstrates positive attitude and progressive actions through the display of professionalism, courtesy, tact, punctuality, attendance, and discretion in all interactions with coworkers, supervisors, and the public; use common sense discretion with no supervision; remain safe, socially moral, lawful, effective, adaptive, and efficient.
